H. L. Moore
1. Interviewed a [REDACTED] who was referred to me by [REDACTED] Assistant Inspector General. [REDACTED] has an excellent transportation background but, according to [REDACTED] for whom he worked in [REDACTED] he is more of a planner than an operator and would, therefore, not be too suitable perhaps for active participation in our administrative transportation program.

3. [REDACTED] reports that [REDACTED] one of our chauffeurs, was shot at last night at his home. Security is conducting the necessary investigation with the police, etc.

4. Colonel Holder, Executive Officer of the Army Awards Committee, telephoned to say that General White had talked to the G-1 and that it was definitely contrary to Army policy to make awards (other than those authorized for civilians) to reserve officers not on active duty.

5. I talked to [REDACTED] about expediting the cooling arrangements at Riverside Stadium and in Lofty Becker's office. Told him to take air conditioning equipment away from someone of lesser rank, if necessary, and give it to Mr. Becker.
